COAL DEALERS PLAN APRIL FOOL

Will Cut Usual 50-Cent Reduction in Half or Omit It Entirely.

The retail enal trade of New York has received word that there will be no reduction of 50 cents a ton on April 1. The large operators allied with the anthracite roads, supplying what is known as "company coal," are considering whether to offer any reduction at all this spring. If a decrease is decided on it will not exceed 25 cents a ton, unless the demand falls off in the next three weeks, sales Eight-dollar coal is the prospect for retail consumers this summer in Manhattan, with the price ranging from $8.75 to $8.75 in Brooklyn, the Bronx and Queens. This will scale the price up to $8.75 by September, unless the present unprecedented demands keeps up, in which event $9 is the likely standard retail price for next winter. Usually the consumption of anthracite falls off in warm weather, but the war boom has kept factories and foundries going night and day, which gives the mines no chance, the oper-gives the mines no chance, the operators say, to accumulate stocks.

George Wolfe, Treasurer and General Manager of the Superior Pocahontas Coal Company and the Winding Gulf Colliery Company, arrived here yesterday from West Virginia and surrendered to the Federal authorities as one of those indicted Tuesday on a charge of conspiring to fix prices of the smokeless steam coal output of the Pocahontas and New River fields. Assistant Attorney General Swacker arraigned him before Judge A. N. Hand. The prisoner entered a temporary plea of not suilty as to himself and his two corporations, with the privilege of changing the plea. He was released in $5,000 ball.

From many points in the Virginias yesterday indicted men phoned to Mr. Swacker and arranged to come on and plead to-day or to-morrow. A speedy trial for all is in prospect. The pentity is $5,000 fine for a corporation, and one year in prison for an individual offender.

ASSAULT CHARGE DISMISSED.

Grand Jury Absolves Alberto Sanches of Sinshing Leroy.

The Grand Jury has dismissed a charge of assault preferred against Alberto Sanchez of No. 150 West Seventy-seventh Street, by Albert Leroy of No. 159 Congress Stret, Brooklyn.

of No. 159 Congress Stret, Brooklyn. Leroy charged that while he was calling on Miss Cella Fox, a dancer, Sanchez broke in the door and slashed him with a knife.

Leroy caused the arrest of Sanchez and the latter was held for the Grand Jury. Sanchez is said to be a son of a wealthy Venezuelan.

Process servers reported that Miss Fox had moved to New Jersey. The District Attorney produced a letter purporting to be written by her in which she withdrew her testimony against Sanchez. Sanchez denied that he had attacked Leroy and delared be had been assaulted with a bottle.
